

CONSUMER FEDERATION OF AMERICA'S

50th Anniversary Celebration Dinner

This year's dinner will celebrate the entire CFA community – its leaders, members, advocates, congressional champions, and accomplishments over the past half-century.

The dinner will conclude with a recognition of retiring executive director Steve Brobeck and a welcome from incoming executive director Jack Gillis.

Contributions to the dinner will support CFA's new Consumer Research Institute (CRI). Organizations and individuals purchasing at least two tables, or contributing at least $5,000, will receive recognition as founding supporters of the CRI. See back panel for more information.
